

Mrs. Plocher's Class Newsletter

This week in 1st Grade:

Back to School! The first full week or so we spend a lot of time going over classroom expectations and getting into the first grade routine. We do "show what you know" Type of activities in most subjects just to help get a baseline of information! In the future this will be where I put specific things we will be working on for the week!

Announcements & Reminders

- Folders: Students will start bringing home their Daily folders. An Explanation on their folder will come home today as well.
- We had a FANTASTIC first few days of school! I am very excited for the rest of the year!
- August 19th is Parent's night. This is an opportunity for you to come into our classroom and get to know more about our routines and how a day in 1st grade looks! This is also a great time to ask any questions you may have and see our space.
- Mass Days: Students may not wear shorts on Mass days (Typically Wednesday & Fridays) they are welcome to bring shorts to change into after mass!
