➤➤ Note from Ms. Richardson

I am so proud of the growth I continue to see from our students! Fourth grade is a year of big academic and personal development, and your children are working hard to build stronger skills, confidence, and independence. It has been exciting to watch them take on challenges and make progress—both big and small—each day. Please expect slip-ups, this is a low-stakes time to learn. I am doing my part to implement systems to aid in your child's success.

As always, please remember that I am here to support both students and families. Open communication is important to me, and I encourage you to reach out anytime with questions, concerns, or celebrations you'd like to share; whether it's through email, a note, or setting up a meeting, I am happy to connect.

➤➤ In Class This Week

ELA:	Narrative Nonfiction—Our Government: We will continue to study pronouns along with cause and effect
Math:	Long division (continued practice), multiplication with 2-digit factors (review), and fractions (introduction)
Social Studies:	Martin Luther King Jr./Civil Rights—along with government study in ELA
Science:	Energy—heat/light and energy transfer in collisions
Religion:	History tour of St. Vincent church with Mrs. Banks and saint study.

➤➤ Community Basket

As we celebrate Catholic Schools Week, we invite our families to help us share Christ's love beyond our school walls. This year, our community basket will be donated to Hope Resource Center.

We are collecting items to bless the dedicated employees and volunteers who serve others every day. Donations may include: individually packaged snacks/treats, office supplies (pens, notebooks, sticky notes, etc.), hygiene/self-care items, and gift cards.

Your generosity—big or small—helps remind these frontline servants that they are appreciated and supported. Thank you for living out our call to service and helping make Catholic Schools Week a time of faith in action.

Please bring all items to the classroom by Monday, January 26. Thank you!

To know and live our faith. To lead and serve by example. To achieve success as life-long learners. ©AngieFish
