Conference Follow-up

Thank you, parents, for taking the time out of your busy schedules to attend parent-teacher conferences! It was wonderful having the opportunity to connect with each of you, share your child's progress, celebrate accomplishments, and discuss areas where we can continue to grow.

Your involvement, support, and partnership play such an important role in your child's success. If you have any additional questions, concerns, or thoughts following our meeting, please don't hesitate to reach out. I am always happy to continue the conversation.

Shamrockin' Auction

I know it may seem a little early to start thinking about our spring auction, but with how quickly this school year is flying by, it will be here before we know it!

Our class will be putting together a basket titled "Read and Relax," featuring items that encourage cozy, relaxing moments spent enjoying a good book.

With the holiday shopping season approaching, there are often great deals and fun finds along the way. If you happen to come across anything you think would be a great fit for our basket, I encourage you to keep it in mind! There is no need to purchase anything right away, but keeping an eye out for items during holiday sales could be a great way to get a head start.

Thank you in advance for your help and generosity!

Bring Religion Home

Our class has the Vocations Chalice in our classroom this week! This is a special opportunity for us to come together as a class and pray for all those who have committed their lives to serving others through ministry. We are keeping priests, religious sisters and brothers, deacons, and all those discerning a vocation in our prayers. We are also encouraging our students to pray for an open heart to hear God's calling in their own lives. What a wonderful reminder of the importance of prayer and supporting those who have dedicated their lives to serving God and His Church!
