Auction

Thank you to everyone who has contributed items to our "Read and Relax" auction basket. We truly appreciate your generosity! Your donations are helping us create a wonderful basket for the auction. If you haven't had a chance to donate yet and would prefer to send a monetary contribution, those can be sent in tomorrow. Even a $5 donation would be greatly appreciated and will help us purchase a few extra filler items to complete the basket.

Our students have also been working on a special project: they painted a chair during art class on Thursday that will be auctioned on Saturday evening. The chair is truly unique and a colorful expression of our class's creativity. We can't wait for you to see it!

What We Are Learning

 Math	How fractions and decimals are related
 ELA	Realistic Fiction, comparative adjectives, vowel teams in spelling
 History	Indiana's early statehood
 Religion	Saint studies/New Chapter
 Science	Erosion

Note from Ms. Richardson

It's hard to believe that we are nearly finished with the third quarter of 4th grade! The growth I have seen from each of your students this year has been tremendous, and I am so proud of their hard work and progress.

As we wrap up the quarter, this is a great time to encourage your student to complete their goals in AR reading and Edmentum. Finishing strong will help them show all they have learned and accomplished this quarter.

With the recent changes in weather, we are often opening windows for some fresh air! Please make sure to send dress-code appropriate clothing (sweatshirts) with your child so they can stay comfortable during these seasonal changes.

Also, please remember that next week is Catholic Schools Week, and we will be celebrating with themed dress days throughout the week. More information about each day's theme will be shared soon!

As always please reach out to me with any questions/concerns.
