November 25th – November 29th

What We Are Learning This Week

Religion: Give Thanks with a Grateful Heart

Reading:

Story: The First Thanksgiving

Grammar: Adjectives (using our senses)

Math: Ordering Numbers to 10

Writing: I Can Write Using Describing Words

- Eevee, Hunter, Vada and Madelyn made their AR goals last week! Wahool
- Kindergarten students will be performing in our Christmas Program on December 5th at 9am. They may wear their "Sunday best" for this program or their uniform with a green or red shirt.
- Please make sure to send in a jacket with your child each day. It is helpful if you label their extra layers with their initials in case it gets lost.
- If your child does not have a book at home, please let me know. I have had a few that put their books away in my bin without checking them in first!
- Chores for Change money is due on the 26th. Please make sure your are encouraging your child to help others. Serving grandparents, friends and neighbors would be a great idea!
- Don't forget to send in your Thanksgiving Basket item. If you do not remember what was assigned to your child, please reach out! I have a list and can check for you.
- I will add the sign up links to our weekly email each week. If you have not signed up to help, there are still some slots left!
- Please keep our auction basket theme, "Picnic in the Park" in mind as you shop this holiday season. We ask each family to donate one item in the spring!
