School Commission

Did you know SVS has an advisory team? It's purpose is to provide support to the administration and focus on initiatives that further the mission of Catholic education and St. Vincent School.

The School Commission is not a governing board and does not work in any capacity related to personnel or policy setting.

Currently, the School Commission is working on a 3-5 year strategic plan using the Continuous Improvement Journey report from the visit from the Office of Catholic Schools, parent survey data, and data related to enrollment and budget.

If you have a skill set related to finance/budget planning or marketing/development and would like to be considered by the membership committee, please contact Mrs. Underwood directly.

Thank you!

eLearning Day Tomorrow!

Tuesday, 11/3, is an eLearning day for all students. In-person learning resumes Wednesday, 11/4.

SVS Parent-Teacher Conferences

Tomorrow, 11/3, is a virtual learning day for all SVS students. Conferences will be held during the day with additional times available to meet after school on 11/5.

The schedule is tight. Please help teachers stick to it by ready for your conference. Teachers understand the importance of being on time as well so if the 15 minutes isn't long enough, they will end the conference and schedule additional time for a later date.

The sign-up genius closes today at 4:00 pm. After that time, please call the office directly to schedule.

SVS Aftercare

With heavy heart we announce that Miss Clairann Lane accepted a position closer to home and will no longer be working as the SVS Aftercare Director. Miss Lane has been a loyal and enthusiastic supporter of SVS in countless ways and she will be dearly missed.

We are happy to announce that Mrs. Abbi Henson, who is new to us this year as an Instructional Aide for the intermediate grades, has accepted the position. Abbi has a background in afterschool programming and is excited to bring that experience to our fold. She is eager to bring new ideas to Aftercare.

God bless Miss Lane and Mrs. Henson in their new endeavors!
