

Mrs. Norman's Weekly News

Week of November 16th

Important Information/Reminders:

We had an eLearning practice day last week. We used our LA schedule and Zoom to practice. The kids did great! We will have another this week and will practice both LA and Math.

Thank you so much for the donations for our classroom store. I wish you could see how excited the kids get when we have new items! Take a moment to ask your kiddo what their bank account balance is. Some of the kids have a LOT of money saved!

We have about 4 more weeks in this quarter. Students should be checking their AR goal status on Renaissance Place.

AR Goal Earners: TJ and Emma

Freckle Goal Earners from last week: Every student made their goal last week! Yay!

Highest Accuracy - Ruben; Most Time Practiced - Abigail; Most Correct Questions - Daxtyn

What we are learning about this week:

Language Arts -

We will be continuing The Sign of the Beaver this week. Chapters 19-25

We will be learning about:

- Run-on sentences
- Context clues
- Figurative language
- Character and setting
- Fluency

Students will take an AR test over this book on Thursday.

Math -

We will finish up chapter 4 with a review and test on Wednesday. We will start chapter 5 on Thursday.

Social Studies -

We are continuing to learn about early exploration

Religion -

We will start chapter 7 this week. Students will be completing their work using the virtual format as a practice for eLearning.

Tests This Week -

- Spelling pretest - Wed./Test - Fri.
- Chapter 4 Math Test on Wednesday
- Sign of the Beaver AR Test on Thurs.
- Religion Chapter 7 Test on Thurs.

We are working on 'word choice' in writing this week. Students are making posters with excellent word choice to be judged by the teachers. The winner will get a prize! These are due on Friday. Students will have two more in-class work times.
